NUMBER 41

THE PHILIPPINE POLICY.

Speech of Hon. James B. White of Kentucky, in the House of Representatives

Tuesday, April 15, 1902.

The House being in Committee of the Whole House on the state of the Union, and having under consideration the bill (H. R. 12765) to provide reciprocal trade relations with Cuba, Mr. White said:

Mr. CHAIRMAN—While I regard the pending measure as important in some of its bearings as affecting the revenues of Government, not very materially, however, and as extending some relief to the people of Cuba, the most interesting phase of the subject, to my mind, is that the discussion of the bill will tend to dispel the delusion, which has so constantly been kept before the people of this country for political effect and for special interests and classes, that a high scale of tariff duties has brought all the happiness and prosperity we have enjoyed in recent years, for we have now the administrated fact here brought forward and advocated by those who have so persistently made this plea that this protective scale may be lowered upon one at least of the articles of daily use by the people—the sugar they consume without destroying the domestic industries furnishing it, thereby presenting an ultimate hope to the great toiling masses of consumers of the country that a time may come when the various manufacturing industries, importing their necessities of life can resoundingly be expected to pursue their business without being specially favored and fostered by Government aid at the expense of by far the more numerous classes of the people of this country, except to the extent the aid may be given in laying a just measure of tariff duties to raise revenue for the Government.

But we can not help but note the declared character of the struggle here made to continue this protection, perpetually claimed now as a right, by the representatives of these favored industries. They almost shed tears in their pathetic appeals for the continuance of the favoritism to the particular sections and fostered industries, that accumulated corporate wealth may flourish at the expense of the people.

Thinking that these aspects of the case made sufficiently manifest already by the discussion, I will ask the indulgence of the House to present my views briefly upon a matter which, to my mind, is of greater consequence to the American people than any other now asking solution at their hands.

The policy pursued by the Government and the course of events in the Philippine Islands since the treaty of Paris mark an epoch in American history, not to be noted so much for the relinquishment of sovereignty over the islands by Spain as for the influence and ultimate effects upon our own country and its institutions: not so much to be weighed by any changed conditions of the unfortunate inhabitants of these remote and to us remote islands as for the change which has brought deeper gloom and despair as by the drift and tendency upon our own political moorings and destiny.

Happy Filipinos, borne down by ages of misrule, deprived of the boon of freedom and independence, seemingly after years of repeated toil and suffering, stricken by an unlooked-for, treacherous hand, alighting held out in apparent friendship and protection, when all their hopes and struggles for freedom appeared at successful termination, how doubly visited by a fate of adversity, an endless gloom of oppression!

It is well remembered how the negotiations of that treaty lingered; how it was soon known that Spanish authority would be withdrawn from Cuba, and Porto Rico ceded to us—conditions justified by the circumstances and approved by our people, how, when near the close of the treaty, the realization was first brought to our country that a cession of these Asiatic Islands was to be forced upon Spain.

This result was not expected by the people of the United States, nor generally anticipated by them, but they awaited the events with feeling of uncertainty and apprehension. But to know the fateful consequences that were to follow. The event was of far-reaching, momentous importance; not indeed that the political power of one of the old monarchies of the world was to be removed, for Great Britain once before in 1763, wrested these possessions from Spain and after holding them two years, and finding them worthless, restored them by treaty; but the great and vital importance was that Spain should cede these distant territories was to be forever parted with at the mandate of the only nation of all ages founded upon principles of liberty and self-government, upon a solemn declaration on our part in the beginning that the purpose of the conflict which brought the result was to advance liberty, uplift humanity, and confer independence to those offering their lives for its blessings.

What result should have followed?
What was the reasonable expectation?
Why should we require this sacrifice by Spain of her ancient possessions improved by her efforts for centuries? Was it to compensate us for the cost of the war?
No; for it was a coincident fact that the payment of $20,000,000 came as a proposition from our commissioners upon demanding the cession of these islands. Was conquest the object? This was denied by our declaration and nowhere demanded by the great and generous people of this country.

No, Mr. Chairman, the motive inspiring the people of the United States had a higher purpose than policy, indemnity, unselfish conquest or the acquisition of territory from a weaker adversary.
It was a motive to relieve the downtrodden—to strike the shackles of oppression from people counting for the right of self-government. And this high purpose should have been carried out by those entrusted with the Administration.
There was but one rightful sequence, but one justification for the removal of Spanish power from the Philippines, and that was to confer upon the inhabitants the greatest of all political rights—that of free and independent government. The opportunity was then offered, as never before in history, to vindicate to the world the strength, the grandeur, the beneficence, and humanity of our institutions, and recommend them to the intelligence of mankind.

To turn aside from this, our plain path of duty and sound policy, was to disregard the fundamental principles of our Government, the teachings and admonitions of its great founders, and every consideration of wisdom, peace and safety.
It was the greatest political mistake of any age. It was worse than a blunder; it was a crime.

The proposition may be laid down as easy of logical demonstration, if it is not self-evident, that the relative location of territory to that of our union should form a controlling consideration in the question of making it a part of our national domain, whether with the consent of the inhabitants or not. No valid argument can be presented nor any just expectation entertained that islands or territory thousands of miles away from our shores, not a part even of our continent, can bring us to the unity of purpose the same aspirations, joint efforts, and common interests that bind together the people of our States in the ties which constitute our pride in peace and bulwark in war.

If these elements of sympathy and joint interests are not to be found in the possessions and among the people to be united with us, if there is to be no cooperation in a common destiny and in public dangers, what desirable bond of union can there be? But when there is added the still greater obstacle, that of the determined opposition and hostility of this remote and numerous people, there is presented a barrier to a beneficial or peaceful union of the gravest nature, and in view of our form of Government, one that is insurmountable; especially, as is the case here, when their numbers, geographical position, state of civilization, and capacity for self-government point to the conclusion that a separate nationality will be a measure of justice and an act of humanity to them—considerations which address themselves to our people as well as to the intelligence of mankind, in behalf of right and justice. For I hold the proposition as reasonable and supported by the history of the world that when these conditions form a separate nation exist, the people possessing them, who aspire to independence, will never long submit to foreign domination.

This is not a question of acquiring situations for commercial purposes, for coaling stations, or for military or naval operations, of taking possession of uninhabited country; of extending civilization to people incapable of governing themselves. A course of policy based on these motives and considerations is not found here. These are not the dominant questions, and they are interwoven in the arguments in defense of this dangerous and unjust course suddenly thrust upon our people they only tend and are only meant to obscure the real purpose and objects of the advocates of military rule and force, always the first and always the greatest danger to republican institutions. There is no precedent to be found in former acquisitions of territory to our Union for this policy. It stands alone in all our history in its hideous characteristics of militarism, of useless disgrace, of barbaric slaughter, of disregard of all primary principles and teachings underlying our political system, of utter and open departure from all of our former professions.

And how easy to have avoided this war —this useless waste of treasure and life.
It only required a just and considerate application of the spirit of our laws, a due regard for the rights of others, sympathy for the distressed, and attention to the precepts of religion and sense of humanity. It needed only a friendly, cau-d, and honorable declaration by this Government that, subject to such control and occupation for peace and order as is needed to protect life and property, upon the withdrawal of Spanish authority these islands should be free and independent when a stable government was established by their people, in the formation of which our Government would lend all needful assistance. Such a declaration would have been an act of the greatest wisdom and justice, of sublime duty and humanity.

But we are told that large commercial advantages will arise from our governing this archipelago rather than allow the natives to do so themselves. How these benefits are to accrue, however, is not distinctly set forth, and in view of the admitted poverty of the people of these islands they are not made manifest, unless we shall further impoverish them by military rule and exactions, excessive taxes, or oppressive conditions imposed by us. It must be noticed, however, that so far as our trade has increased with the country of these stricken people since our occupation, it is accounted for chiefly, if not solely, from supplying our military and naval forces there.

It is also claimed that the Filipinos are uncivilized and incapable of self-government. This is an assertion easily made and has often been the plea for oppression. It is equivalent to saying that Spanish rule has never brought advancement to its colonies, notwithstanding the building of churches, cities, institutions of learning, and all the establishments for national, religious, and educational progress. While Spain from time to time has had her vast colonial possessions, she has always left remaining magnificent works of art, architecture, and learning—monuments to attest her power and civilization wherever she has ruled. And if Spain could not civilize these people in three hundred and seventy-five years, a mighty task indeed have we taken upon ourselves. But while portions of the inhabitants of these islands are uncivilized, the assertion is shown to be unfounded as the civilized sections that would advance the mental forces and energies that would control in forming and administering a government for their country. The conflicts of these people for their liberties have brought forward men of ability who have evolved to the world that they are fit and worthy to control the destinies of their country.

But if it were true that commercial benefits would result to our country by holding these islands permanently, or consequently, of our having a military moral and religious agencies might be better applied than the sword, still these contentions are inadmissible and should not control if the structure of our institutions or considerations of sound policy should dictate that it is wrong to force our rule upon these people who once looked to us for succor, friendship, and protection.

And upon this question, which may be the turning point of our entry upon that course which has hitherto marked the destinies of nations, the experience, enlightened judgment, and patriotic sentiment of the American people must be invoked, until a final and just decision is made for the honor and for the weal or woe of this Republic.

Mr. Chairman, in all former additions of territory to our country that might affect its welfare, of Louisiana, Florida, Texas, California, and New Mexico, Alaska, and Hawaii, especially all the first mentioned, their fitness in our national boundary and system, that they might aid in the common advancement and national strength, weighed as the controlling considerations.
They were but the natural extensions of our country, dictated by wise foresight and just policies.

So far as I am concerned, Mr. Chairman, the counsel and admonitions of those who laid the foundation of our political fabric shall be a sufficient guide.
And it will be an evil day when the American people shall forget or turn aside from these warning and teachings.
The great author of our Declaration of Independence said:

"Governments are instituted among men, deriving their just powers from the consent of the governed."

"Peace, commerce, and honest friendship with all nations; entangling alliances with none."

The Father of his Country said to us:
"The great rule of conduct for us in regard to foreign nations is, in extending our commercial relations, to have with them as little political connection as possible. So far as we have already formed engagements, let them be fulfilled with perfect good faith. Here let us stop."

Our detached and distant situation invites and enables us to pursue a different course. * * * Why forego the advantages of so peculiar a situation?
Why quit our own to stand upon foreign ground? * * * In offering you, my countrymen, these counsels of an old and affectionate friend, I dare not hope they will make the strong and lasting impression I could wish—that they will control the usual current of passions or prevent our nation from running the course which has hitherto marked the destiny of nations."

In direct opposition to these teachings we now have proclaimed the uncertain and doubtful doctrine, founded by no determinate limits, of a liberal constitution of our organic law; of strong, aggressive foreign policies; of making our nation a world power; of expanding our possessions to distant islands and countries for commercial purposes; of great and ever-increasing naval and military establishments.

A mission of peace to the people of the Philippine Islands will be sent from our people in the near future, I trust, bearing the message of freedom and independence for them. Let us hope that this blessing to them and honor to ourselves may not be long delayed. [Applause.]

MEAT TRUST.

For this enormous combination of capital we have no sympathy and shall offer no quarter. At present beef is high and it is more than possible the trusts have made it so, but if can make beef high can also make it low. One year they can have the farmer enthusiastic and wild over high price, and the next year they can be starving them if they choose with beef at 1/2c per pound rather than 6c as it now is. Better all round competition backed by the law of supply and demand to control prices. A trust is said to be soulless and their ways are past finding out.

NOW THEN.

Berry Howard has been acquitted on the charge of complicity in the murder of Wm. Goebel. The jury was composed entirely of Democrats. This fact should be borne in mind by those Republicans in substance have been saying: of course no one accused can have a fair trial, they will convict innocent men, with that $100,000 they will swear away the life of any man. We do not question the verdict of the jury. They were in possession of facts in the case and have no doubt rendered a just verdict. We are anxious that the guilty be punished, and the innocent set free if arrested.

FOR CIRCUIT CLERK.

We take pleasure in announcing to the voters of this county that Joe. H. Kemper is willing, yes anxious, to perform the duties of Circuit Court Clerk of this county. Joe. is a Democrat, genial, capable, accommodating, unmarried, fine looking, fair faced and less than forty. He is a native of this county. His experience as a deputy for four years as County Court Clerk well qualifies him for the duties of the office to which he aspires. He is a crack shot and will be apt to bring down his opponent as easily as he does a pigeon. Joe. has many friends who wish him success.

AT LARGE.

Within a week's time there has been reported two robberies and no arrests; also one attempt at assassination, and we ask the Mayor of city to look after the matter, for the first thing the people know some one will be relieved of a large war or some one will lose his life. We know two night police cannot be everywhere at the same time, and in the case of an emergency as now assistance is needed and should be provided.

These robbers and would-be assassins should be found out by the police and then be forced into a speedy trial.

WARNING.

We are informed that distillery slop is being tunned into Hinkstuck at the distillery here, polluting the water so that stock refuse to drink and the smell of decaying matter is becoming past endurance. The manager of this institution is acquainted with the laws of the land, and we merely call attention to complaints now.

The old feeling that "anything you can get out of a railroad company is so much gain," is dying out, and people are learning that the railroads are the best friends any community can have.

No community can thrive without railroad facilities, and the greater these facilities, the better the opportunity for thrift. Every town may be benefited by cultivating the acquaintance of railroad people, and getting them interested in the progress. This is not a difficult matter, for the railroad men know that whatever goes to build up the towns on their lines helps their company also, and in nearly every instance are ready and willing to do more than their share in co-operating with the people. They should be known personally by the business men of the different towns, for a personal acquaintance has more to do with fostering good feeling. The ambition of the towns in the way of public improvements should be made known to them, in nine cases out of ten the railroads will aid and encourage the people.

In short, the railroads and the communities should get close together, and work for mutual good rather than along lines of antagonism.—Paris Gazette.

Hon. John W. Yerkes may become a member of the present Administration with Mr. Roosevelt President. A high compliment would such a promotion be, and Mr. Yerkes would honor the Cabinet as much as the position would him.

Salted Husband.

At English, Indiana, emel and Inman treatment will be the plea of Thomas Foley for divorce. His wife admits that she tied his hands and feet while he was drunk and applied salt to his hands, face and clothing, that the cattle in the field where he lay helpless might lick him to death as a revenge for a beating she received during a drunken orgy.

The Man Who Executed Czolgoz.

E. F. Davis, who pressed the button at "Czolgoz's" electrocution has been missing since soon after the electrocution, and his family has given him up for dead. He had received several letters from Europe and this country, saying that if he carried out the State's orders he would be summarily dealt with.

Unusual Case.

Recently a stranger went into the Farmers Bank and handed Mr. A. W. Overton, the cashier, $30, remarking that he owed the bank that amount which he had received in overpayment of a check some eighteen years since. He said the then teller of the bank, who was Mr. Theobald, paid him $30 on a $50 check. He said that he had been out of the State during all that time and that was the reason he had not returned the money sooner.

The records of the old Farmers Bank of Kentucky show that Mr. Theobald made good the $30 short in cash at that time and the money will be sent him.—Frankfort Roundabout.

Although not as nimble as the horse the mule is an excellent animal for farm purposes and ought to be more popular. He is hardy, a good forager, and when not working costs little to maintain. Although a prejudice exists against him, the mule if given a chance, will wear it down. He is as profitable as the horse, and as easy to raise. True, the range of his heels is dangerous, but the man who doesn't know enough to keep out of reach of a mule's hind legs should be incarcerated in the same padded cell with the fellow who lacks sufficient latitude to go in when it rains. All the mule requires is a little encouragement. He will do the rest and do it with profit to the man who furnishes the encouragement.—Chicago Live Stock World.

Rural Delivery

Application having been made to Postmaster Hall for two routes, Hon. H. G. Rising of the Postoffice Department was here Thursday and Friday and the two following routes were accepted.

Route No. 1 begins at Mt. Sterling postoffice; thence west 5 miles on Grassy Lick pike to Grassy; thence north 1 1/2 miles to North Middletown and Paris pike; thence west 1 1/2 miles to Sideview postoffice; thence southwest 2 1/4 miles to Wades schoolhouse on Donaldson; thence up Donaldson pike 4 miles to Grassy; thence south 3 miles to Allen Prentiss on Winchester pike; thence northeast 3 1/2 miles to city limits; thence to postoffice 3 1/4 miles; making total length of route 2 1/2 miles.

Route No. 2 begins at Mt. Sterling postoffice running east to city limits 1 mile; thence northeast 7 1/2 miles to Flat Creek postoffice; thence west 4 1/2 miles to Bryant's schoolhouse; thence east 2 1/4 miles to Stoops; thence south to postoffice 3 1/4 miles; total 20 1/2 miles.

Examinations were held last Friday for carriers on said routes and the following is the list who made application and were examined: John McAlister, Harry Miller, Wm. Hunt, Roe Freeland, O. S. Biggs, Henry D. Ware. Two of this number will be appointed. These routes will be established at earliest time practicable and four other routes will be established as soon as the people express a desire for same. Postmaster Hall took this matter up as soon as a desire was made known, resulting as above stated. Route No. 1 was originally intended to cover Aarons Run district but this covered too much territory to give good service and route No. 3 will begin at Mt. Sterling postoffice and go out Paris pike to Sideview; thence to Aarons Run, J. O. via Mayville pike and will be established as soon as petitions signed by patrons of route is completed.

All persons desiring service on these routes will be prepared to put up boxes which will be selected by a committee appointment on each route as it is desired that boxes on each route be uniform. Any boxes purchased by patrons may be money thrown away for the department will receive only such boxes as are approved by the committee.

The carrier will make daily trips stopping at each station at certain hours, gathering and delivering mail, receive applications for money orders, register letters—in short a traveling postoffice.

This is progress whether everybody wants it or not and we must drop in line if we would be up to date.

The Waste of Strong Drink.

Who can estimate it? In one year during the last decade the liquor traffic cost New York City $247,000,000. It has been carefully estimated that we pay as a nation each year, over $1,000,000,000 for strong drink. The drink bill for Great Britain in 1898 was put at $773,500,000, of which $550,000,000 was paid by the working class. More than the financial cost is the terrible moral and social waste. As one says, "Wine is a mocker. It engenders strife, it breeds sorrow. It is the distiller of woe. It has the serpent's bite. It has the adder's sting. It ensnares the unwary feet. It smites out the soul's vision. It mangles the hand and foot of the strongest men. It snatches bread with swinish greed from the emaciated hands of starving children. It plucks the roses from the cheeks of bridal beauty. It laughs and treads in the mire the lily robes of innocence and womanhood."—Selected.

JUNE MEETING of County Superintendents and Kentucky Educational Association, in Lexington.

A large attendance of the county officials interested in their charge and teachers who are in love with their profession will be present. State Superintendent writes an earnest plea.

"The County Superintendent is the vitalizing, animating professional spirit of the school work in every county in the State. If his administration is vigorous, forceful and progressive it will tell in the spirit of his teaching; if he fears criticism and degenerates into a time-server his teachers will, perhaps unconsciously, absorb some of his professional debility. Nowhere in all the professions and pursuits of civil life is intelligent, capable leadership so necessary as in the public school work. The marked difference in the educational spirit of counties lying side by side emphasizes this. The cause? Difference in leadership.

In speaking of the appointment of Judge J. M. Benton as Circuit Judge of the twenty-fifth judicial district, the Lexington Herald said:

"Some time ago when Governor Beckham appointed Judges Muir and O'Doherty to the two Judgeships created by the recent legislation, we thought it just to say that the appointments to the bench made by Governor Beckham have been entirely creditable. He has in every case selected a competent lawyer, who was also a gentleman of high personal character."

Judge Benton will fill every requirement of this most responsible position. A deserving, capable man he is.

DESCRIPTION

His station standing, hind pasterns white, 15 3/4 hands high, foaled in 1898. A fine, large, well made horse with plenty of substance and quality. An exceedingly well-bred horse and a high-class race horse. Secured his record as five-year-old winner and was only beaten a heat in 2:10 1/2 by a horse now dead. ST. VINCENT'S opportunities have not been good; he has had few trials of good places. His list of performers are all trotters. He has never won a race. Lord Vincent 2:08 1/2, by him is, everything considered, the very best trotter of the present day. He was far from being a sound horse; still, even in that condition, he raced better and struggled harder than most horses that are free from soreness. ST. VINCENT will get great trotters; for in the last two years he has had a better class of mares. I like his breeding and am confident that he will sire great race horses.

ST. VINCENT will stand at the stables of the Mt. Sterling Stock Yards Co. at

Wants To Help others.

"I had stomach trouble all my life," says Edward Meher, proprietor of the Union Bottling Works, Erie, Pa., "and tried all kinds of remedies, went to several doctors and spent considerable money trying to get a moment's peace. Finally I read of Kodo's Dyspepsia Cure and have been taking it to my great satisfaction. I never found its equal for stomach trouble and gladly recommend it in hope that I may help other sufferers." Kodo's Dyspepsia Cure cures all stomach troubles. You don't have to diet, Kodo's Dyspepsia Cure digests what you eat.

It is well to profit by our mistakes, but it is better not to make any.

The girl who craves excitement should marry a man to reform him.

"Stick To It."

Geo. L. Heard, of High Tower, Georgia, writes: "Eczema broke out on my baby covering his entire body. Under treatment of our family physician he got worse as he could not sleep for the burning and itching. We used a box of 'Banner Salve' on him and by the time it was gone he was well. The Doctor seeing it was curing him said, 'Stick to it for it is doing him more good than anything I have done for him.'"

F. C. Duerson, Druggist.

The crust of society is formed of people who have the "dough."

Best Way to Cure Backache.

Backaches are caused by disorder in the kidneys. Foley's Kidney Cure will make the kidneys right. Take no substitute.

F. C. Duerson, Druggist.

In the stock market a man speculates; in the marriage market he gambles.

Given Up to Die With Croup.

Mrs. P. L. Cordier, of Manning, Ky., writes: "My three-year-old girl had a severe case of croup; the doctor said she could not live and I gave her up to die. I went to the store and got a bottle of Foley's Honey and Tar, the first dose gave quick relief and saved her life."

F. C. Duerson, Druggist.

Every unkind treatment to the cow poisons the milk—read Warning carefully to her.

Saved Many a Life.

Don't neglect coughs and colds even if it is spring. Such cases often result seriously at this season just because people are careless. A dose of One Minute Cough Cure will remove all danger. Absolutely safe. Acts at once. Sure cure for coughs, colds, croup, grip, bronchitis, and other throat and lung troubles. "I have used One Minute Cough Cure several years," says Postmaster C. O. Dawson, Barr, Ill. "It is the very best cough medicine on the market. It has saved me many a severe spell of sickness and I warmly recommend it." The children's favorite.

F. C. Duerson, druggist.

Oil Prospects.

Hon. Jesse B. Morris, legislator from Morgan and Wolfe counties, has been offered a good round price for his farm on the waters of Caney. This is evidence of an oil find or of the very best prospects.

Shot In His Left Leg.

For all kinds of sores, burns, bruises, or other wounds DeWitt's Witch Hazel Salve is a sure cure. Skin diseases yield to it at once. Never fails in cases of piles, itching and healing. None genuine but DeWitt's. Beware of counterfeits. "I suffered for many years from a sore caused by a gunshot wound in my left leg," says A. S. Fuller, English, Ind. "It would not heal and gave me much trouble. I used all kinds of remedies to no purpose until I tried DeWitt's Witch Hazel Salve. A few boxes completely cured me."

F. C. Duerson, druggist.

A woman can sharpen a man's wit even if she can't sharpen a lead pencil.

Neglect Means Danger.

Don't neglect biliousness and constipation. Your health will suffer permanently if you do. DeWitt's Little Early Risers cure such cases. M. B. Smith, Butternut, Mich., says "DeWitt's Little Early Risers are the most satisfactory pills I ever took. Never gripe or cause nausea."

F. C. Duerson, Druggist.

Some people should pack their gear resolutions in cotton and then, perhaps, they wouldn't get broken.

COUGH?

Take Vinol, It Prevents Consumption. Coughs Lead to this Disease.

Don't keep on coughing. Please take, on our advice, and be that which will heal the inflammation in your lungs, throat, and bronchial tubes. We refer to VINOL.

The great tonic reconstructs and applies this by so nourishing the body that diseased tissue cannot exist. The reason that we sell VINOL and endorse it so highly is that we know it will do good. Not only have we investigated ourselves, but we are taking as our authority the opinions of every druggist in this State and elsewhere.

The following letter on this subject will interest our readers.

"Last Fall and Winter I suffered from a bad cold, which caused me to cough severely. I felt pain in my side and lungs. I had heard about VINOL and decided to try it. It cured me completely. Thanks to C. Traces, Wickford, R.I."

We wish to invite everyone to call on us and let us tell you all we know about this delicious tasting preparation. We sell VINOL on a guarantee, and will refund the money to anyone who does not find it will do all that we claim.

Nations, like individuals, are powerful in the degree that they command the sympathies of their neighbors.

The Most Stubborn Coughs resulting from an attack of gripe or heavy cold, must yield to the wonderful healing properties of Foley's Honey and Tar, which strengthens the lungs and makes them sound.

Every kind word you say to a dumb animal or bird will make you happier.

V. B. Conklin, Bowersville, O., says: "I received more benefit from Foley's Kidney Cure than from months of treatment by physicians."

F. C. Duerson, druggist.

Always kill a wounded bird or other animal as soon as you can. All suffering of any creature, just before it dies, poisons the meat.

Any woman is willing to wear a shoe too small for her, if it comes to a pinch.

B. Presson, Pressonville, Kans., writes: "Nothing like Foley's Honey and Tar" is the universal verdict of all who have used it. Especially has this been true of coughs accompanying a gripe. Not a single bottle failed to give relief.

Another Statement About That Corn Crib.

In our issue of April 15 we stated that in a crib whose dimensions are 14x25 ft. there are 98 and 155 one-thousandths barrels of corn, counting 2218.192 cu. inches in a bushel. We had forgotten the number of cu. inches in a bushel, so we consulted an arithmetic at F. C. Duerson's drug store.

We are in receipt of a communication from G. W. Thompson, Olympia, Ky., stating that in that crib are 101.25 barrels. He says that the arithmetic (Towne's) by which his calculation is made gives the inches in a bushel as 2150.4.

As we are not expert in deciding difference between mathematicians and measures we submit the above to the public. This difference is a matter of importance to the dealers in corn who are interested in that crib for the two counts vary 3.095 barrels, and this quantity of corn at $3 per barrel means $9.285.

These are the Facts, and Observations are: If by our report we have caused the purchaser to gain $9.285 he should subscribe for the MT. STERLING ADVOCATE for over 9 years (say as long as he lives) and by a conference with the seller of that corn adjust their deal; and our subscriber who sent in the query can verify our report by examining the same arithmetic at the drug store. $9.285 is not picked up every hour, so we suggest further consideration.

Winchester's Advantage.

"T. P. Creed, representing The Gaar Scott Co., sold to a Mt. Sterling party last week a threshing outfit amounting to $2,100. It will be shipped to Winchester because the competing lines of railroads here a much less rate of freight can be secured."

The above was clipped from a Winchester paper. This is one of that city's advantages regarding railway competition. When the electric road is built to our city we will probably not be subject to such discrimination. The haul from Winchester to this place is a short one, and probably the C. & O. can not afford to handle the shipment.

Judge Benton Appointed.

Gov. Beckham appointed Judge J. M. Benton, of Winchester, Judge for this district to fill out the unexpired term of Judge Scott. We regard this as a fitting recognition of Judge Benton in a double sense. His service to his party and his ability as a lawyer. He will fill the position with credit. We have been associated with him in Boards with which we are connected and in other ways, and we have found him in these relations level headed, just and honorable. He will carry the same traits with him to the Judges' bench—Winchester Sentinel.

The above by the editor of a Republican paper is no doubt a just compliment.

The terrible drain of the South African war has forced the British ministry to resort to the taxing of wheat and other grain imports, which will directly affect the export trade in such articles from the United States. Our exports of wheat to the United Kingdom for the past year ended June 30, 1901, amounted to 78,574,752 bushels. This is equal to 39,287,376 hundredweight of 112 pounds each. At three pence, or six cents per hundred weight equivalent to three cents per bushel, this would be a total duty payment equal to $2,357,242. But we also exported to the United Kingdom 10,544,573 barrels of flour, which is to be taxed at five pence, or ten cents per hundredweight. To the United Kingdom we also sent 79,841,843 bushels of corn, which under the new budget system, will pay six cents per hundredweight. The tendency of the tax is of course, to lower the price of wheat here, thus making our wheat growers pay a part of the cost of the Boer war, which in three years has run up to $85,000,000. The total deficit for the British budget for '01 year is estimated at $22,000,000.

Last year the chancellor put a tax on sugar and increased the income tax two pence on the pound. This year he adds the grain duties, increases the stamp duties and raises the income tax another penny in the pound, making it now fifteen pence. The government must have money to carry on one of the costliest wars in history, new sources of revenue must be found and heavier rates imposed on the old ones. And the end is not yet in sight.

If we want to get an idea of the wide prevalence of stomach "trouble" we have only to note the numerous advertisements of so-called "remedies" for disorders of the stomach. It is in part due to the abundance of these preparations that diseases of the stomach reach such painful and serious proportions. The earlier symptoms of stomach trouble, sour or bitter risings, belching and a feeling of undue fullness after eating, may be relieved by the use of these simple palliatives. But though the unpleasant symptoms are relieved, the disease goes right on until some day it reaches an acute stage where palliatives are powerless, and even the ordinary treatment of physicians is unable to afford more than temporary relief.

Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery is gaining a wider recognition every day as one of the most valuable of medicines, because of its cures of diseases of the stomach and other organs of digestion and nutrition. The cures effected by the use of "Golden Medical Discovery" include a remarkable number of so-called "hopeless cases," cases diagnosed by local physicians as catarrh of the stomach, intestinal dyspepsia, and other forms of acute disease of the stomach. These cures are so many and so various that no matter what form of stomach trouble one may be afflicted with he may begin the use of Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery with the assurance that a cure is certain if it is within the scope of medicine to cure at all. In forty-nine cases out of fifty where it is faithfully used the "Discovery" will cure.

"I Had Given Up All Hope."

"At the time I commenced taking your treatment," writes Mr. Geo. C. Feaster, of 1434 Tenth Penn Sq., Philadelphia, Pa., "I had given up all hope and became disgusted with patent medicines. After serving two years as marine engineer on an outside steamer I noticed that my health was failing fast. Owing to my age and robust appearance I was laughed at for complaining of feeling so miserable, but after 'suffering it out' for awhile, my healthy looking appearance disappeared and I began to feel that something should be done, as I could hardly get around. Doctors treated me for cancer of stomach, catarrh of stomach, kidney trouble, heart trouble, nervous prostration, but had gotten tired of eating pills and drinking so-called 'tonics.' After reading over the testimonial of a person who had taken Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery, I concluded to give it a trial. After a few doses I began to feel much better. My bowels had been very irregular, sometimes did not move more than three times a week. I was confined to the engine-room most of the time and had no chance to exercise at all, but after taking the first dose of medicine my bowels became more regular. Before taking Dr. Pierce's medicine I had a burning in my throat almost constantly, which prevented me from eating anything greasy at all, and my stomach felt as though it was full of sores. I soon began to feel better, and in time completely recovered my former health."

VERY VALUABLE. "I fully appreciate the value of your 'Medical Advice,' writes F. T. Houghton, of Norristown, Marjorie Co., Pa., and consider it a hundred times more valuable than any medical work ever published before." Dr. Pierce's Common Sense Medical Advice is sent FREE on receipt of stamps to any expense of mailing ONLY. Send 21 one-cent stamps for the cloth-bound volume, or only 21 stamps for the book in paper covers.

Changes in the School Law.

The Legislature made changes in the school law. Among those were the following:

The June examination for the graduates of common schools was changed to the second Friday and Saturday in May, and two days instead of one assigned to the January examination.

It has never been possible to pay the forty per cent of the public fund in October, as the law provided, and the payment of the forty per cent is deferred until December.

The minimum salary that any county may pay to the County Superintendent is $400.

Heretofore when a school house was condemned, the trustees, under penalty, were required to have it repaired in a year. This penalty is now removed and the trustees may levy and collect a tax from year to year until a sufficient sum has accumulated to build a house.

When two thirds of the voters of a district have voted a tax the trustees may borrow the money to build a house.

Heretofore the week of the Teacher's Institute has been counted as a week taught when it occurred during the session of the school, but now the teachers must teach twenty weeks without County Institute week.

Kindness Gratefully Returned.

Mr. T. H. Davis, of Winchester, kindly loaned his mare and buggy to a Mr. Ben Cox one day last fall. Mr. Davis never heard from his horse, buggy or man until one day last week when Mr. Geo. McCollom, of this place, located the man and right here. Mr. Davis immediately boarded the train and on reaching Berea saw his man but was unable to get him as he was boarded a moving train. At a total cost of about $100 Mr. Davis secured his horse and buggy. He says he wishes Cox had sold the horse and buggy as he could have justly prosecuted. Cox is an Earlville agent, piano and sewing machine agent and is at this time selling (?) buggy rugs about Berea. Winchester Sentinel.

There is more Catarrh in this section of the country than all other diseases put together, and until the last few years was supposed to be incurable. For a great many years doctors pronounced it a local disease, and prescribed local remedies, and by constantly failing to cure with local treatment, pronounced it incurable. Science has proven catarrh to be a constitutional disease, and therefore requires constitutional treatment. Hall's Catarrh Cure, manufactured by F. J. Cheney & Co., Toledo, Ohio, is the only constitutional cure on the market. It is taken internally in doses from 10 drops to a teaspoonful. It acts directly on the blood and mucous surfaces of the system. They offer one hundred dollars for any case it fails to cure. Send for circulars and testimonials. Address, F. J. CHENEY & Co., Toledo, O. Sold by Druggists, 75c. Hall's Family Pills are the best.

Let us Repeat.

Editor Duley of the Flemingsburg Democrat, says: "For the twentieth time let us repeat that the only genuine, blown-in-the-glass, all-wool and yard-wide seventy-year locusts are not due to arrive here this year. They were here in 1855, 1872 and 1889, and consequently are not due until 1906. Any locusts coming this year will be base frauds and imitations and not the genuine article."
